The reactions to TEN hugely successful GM Shows

GM Promotions... going the extra mile.....Providing an exhibitor open day....sourcing media discounts for participating clients in relation to Show advertising.....GM Events Networking Party with an exhibitor only prize draw
We have thousands of happy visitors and hundreds of satisfied and happy clients...

We always look forward to the shows with GM promotions as they are by far the best organised and attended shows that we have done on the Costa Blanca.

I had 2 marvelous days at the previous Home Garden and Lifestyle show. I sold a lot and it opened for me the door to a whole new group of new customers. I am looking forward to participate again in the next show. Annemiek Hennin - STAR Energetix

Always a great Show and always great results. deVere

Exhibited at the Home and Garden Life style show on several occasions now and each time it has been an excellent opportunity to showcase our services as a business to the EX-pat community and has generated much new business and is a perfect opportunity to catch up with existing customers I would not hesitate to recommend exhibiting to anyone looking to attract new customers / strength a business's current brand. Perhaps one of the biggest testaments to the show is that we travel specifically from the UK for the show with all the costs that are attached to that, but still feel that the investment is more than worthwhile which has been proven by business results'

Having attended five show's now I have no hesitation in booking again this year, GM Promotions events are always well planned, and have a great pre, during and post advertising campaign. The Showcase exhibitions for the visitors are excellent and you organise great competitions for the visitors, your show's do not look like market stalls, all the exhibitors go to great lengths to look professional and well presented and there is always an excellent mix of businesses which match your professional standards. We get great results from exhibiting. It's a no brainer. Sarah Hawes Directora Cambridge 800 Head Office Costa del Sol.

I perceive the Homes Garden and Lifestyle event as an opportunity to reach hundreds of potentially new customers. It is generally well attended and with over a hundred exhibitors, all of whom are potential customers, this makes it possible to reach a new wider audience in a cost effective manner. The event is well organised and well supported by local businesses and customers. Doreen Massouras - Bakerella cakes

Gina at GM Promotions has worked hard to create the best Homes, Gardens and Lifestyle Shows on the Costa Blanca. Her enthusiasm, incredible contacts and marketing skills are put to excellent use as she produces exhibitions attracting thousands of visitors. They are entertained by the many activities - I particularly love the Cook Off competitions - as well as finding out about the many fabulous businesses on the Costa Blanca. These exhibitions are an ideal way to put your business in front of thousands of potential clients - plus have a lot of fun while working in the sun!

Always a great show and good footfall at one of Gina's exhibitions. We've been attended now for 5 years and it always works so well for us! A mixture of stalls and you get to meet some interesting people along the way! As well as new friends! We are really looking forward to the next event Becky & Team www.avalonfuneralplans.com

I have exhibited at The Homes Gardens and Lifestyle Shows twice in the past and have been extremely pleased with the organisation of the events, Gina's thoughtful planning makes sure that visitors see all parts of the Show. I was pleased with customer footfall and resulting sales, which have earned repeat business since the Shows.... Kathy Thomas- Funky Designs
